

Ann Mellow
Associate Director
National Association of Episcopal Schools

Ann Mellow joined the National Association of Episcopal Schools (NAES) on July 1, 2008 as assistant director for program development and was named to her current position in January 2010. As Associate Director, Ms. Mellow develops educational programs and materials for NAES member schools and consults frequently on Episcopal school leadership, governance, and Episcopal identity.

Prior to her arrival at NAES, Ms. Mellow was interim director of the New York Interschool Association, New York City, a consortium of eight K-12 independent schools. From 1995 to 2007, she was head of school at St. Luke's School, New York City, a co-educational Episcopal school serving students in pre-kindergarten through grade 8 associated with the historic Church of Saint Luke in the Fields.

Ms. Mellow began her teaching career at Garrison Forest School in Baltimore, Maryland and subsequently served as middle school head at Poly Prep Country Day School and the Chapin School, both in New York City. A past trustee of the New York State Association of Independent Schools (NYSAIS), she has chaired accreditation committees and presented frequently at NYSAIS conferences, including the Experienced Teachers Institute, Beginning Teachers Institute, Early Childhood and Lower School Heads Conference, and Emerging Leaders Institute.

Ms. Mellow is currently a trustee at Grace Church School, New York, New York and Brooklyn Heights Montessori School, Brooklyn, New York. She holds an A.B. from Middlebury College and an Ed.M. from the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

About the National Association of Episcopal Schools

The National Association of Episcopal Schools (NAES) is an independent, 501(c)(3), voluntary membership organization that supports, serves, and advocates for the vital work and ministry of those who serve nearly 1,200 Episcopal schools, early childhood education programs, and school establishment efforts throughout The Episcopal Church. Chartered in 1965, with historic roots dating to the 1930s, NAES is the only pre-collegiate educational association that is both national in scope and Episcopal in character. The association advances Episcopal education and strengthens Episcopal schools through essential services, resources, conferences, and networking opportunities on Episcopal school identity, leadership, and governance, and on the spiritual and professional development of school leaders.
