

*Making Room for Everyone:
More Stories for Building a Children's Chapel.
Folktales from Around the World.*

*Bill Gordh
Table of Contents*

PART 1: Creating the Framework for Chapel

Chapter 1: Setting Up Chapel

+ For use in Churches, Sunday Schools, Synagogues, Assemblies, Discussion Groups

PART 2: Stories of Self

Chapter 2: Mr. Wanna Be Big (African-American). Focusing on what we are not can really get in the way of celebrating all that we are

Chapter 3: Inga (Sweden): We can do more than we think.

Chapter 4: The Stonecutter (Japanese) We are often more than we think we are; it can take a journey to discover that what at first looks better may not be at all.

Chapter 5: Whatever Comes my Way (England) With the right attitude, anything that comes our way can become an opportunity.

Chapter 6: The Happy Man's Shirt (Italy); True happiness starts within.

Chapter 7: The Best King (Thailand): What kind of person do we want to be? Like the kind of person we admire.

Chapter 8: The Hummingbird and the Fire (Southern Africa): Each of us should do whatever we can to make the world better.

PART 3: Stories of Family and Friends,

Chapter 9: A Bundle of Sticks (East Africa) We are stronger when we work together.

Chapter 10: Turtle, Deer and Dove (Thailand) Each friend uses its gifts to help others.

Chapter 11: Half a Blanket (Mexico) A child's compassion leads the way.

Chapter 12: Crow and Hen and the Drum (Southern Africa) Trust sits at the center of friendship. (Explore Alternate endings)

Chapter 13: The Street of Somersaults (Mexico): A little girl who turns down friends discovers their importance.

Chapter 14: Moving a Mountain (China): It can take generations to accomplish a Change.

Chapter 15: The Trapped Birds (India) Sometimes a group can accomplish what an individual cannot.

PART 4: Stories of Faith, New Life and Celebration

Chapter 16: Inchworm Mountain (Miwok – Native American) Persistence pays off.

Chapter 17: The Ax of Gold (Greece) A poor man is rewarded for his honesty.

Chapter 18: A Night of Peace (Scotland) There is a chance for peace in the world.

Chapter 19: King Solomon and the First Temple (Jewish) Choosing a place to gather: Sacred Space

Chapter 20: The Fastest (Southern Africa) Compassion leads to more compassion

Chapter 21: The Town of Good Fortune (Jewish) Let's Look Anew at What We Have

Chapter 22: Time Will Tell (Middle East) Trust in the ways of life.

PART 5: Stories of the Value of All Living Things

Chapter 23: Little Ant and the Lion King (Myanmar) Big and Little Alike are Valuable in this World

Chapter 24: The Crow Ship (Central South America): The Dangers of Pre-judging

Chapter 25: The Cracked Pot (China) Everyone Has Value

Chapter 26: The Bunyip (Australia) A story of honoring animals in their habitats.

Chapter 27: The Calabash Children (West Africa) Every child has value.

Chapter 28: Adilah and the White Snake (North Africa) May kindness be our guide.

Chapter 29: Two Stories of the Value of the Elderly

A Ride Up the Hill: A Grandmother's Gift (Korea)

A Thatched Roof (Vietnam)

PART 6: Stories of Giving and Forgiving

Chapter 30: The Boy who wanted a Drum (India) Considering the needs of others.

Chapter 31: From Bread to Roses (Italy) Generosity can turn a life around.

Chapter 32: Three Loaves of Bread (Jewish) Generosity is repaid

Chapter 33: The Honey Pot (Arabic) What Each of Us Does Makes a Difference

Chapter 34: Shoulda Done Better (Original) Asking for Forgiveness Leads the Way to Amends

Chapter 35: The Lion and the Boy (Ethiopia) How our words can wound.

PART 7: THE SONGBOOK

- Introduction and suggested organization and song titles
- About the Songs in this Volume (including outlines for Family Services)
- Songs. Lyrics and Notation