DID YOU KNOW?

- 1,160 — the number of Episcopal schools and Early Childhood Education (ECE) programs.
- The Episcopal Diocese of Haiti has 252 schools, the most of any diocese of The Episcopal Church.
- Texas has 121 schools and ECE programs in 6 dioceses, the most in the U.S.A.
- 160,000 — the approximate number of students in Episcopal schools. The students represent significant socio-economic, racial, cultural, and religious diversity.
- 25% — the approximate percentage of Episcopal school students who are Episcopalians, although this number varies with location and type of school. This means that Episcopal schools serve large numbers of students from other Christian denominations, non-Christian traditions, or no formal faith backgrounds.
- $212,000,000 — the estimated value of financial aid Episcopal schools offered in 2013-2014.
- 28,500 — the approximate number of administrators, faculty, and staff members Episcopal schools employ.
- Trinity School, New York City, founded in 1709, is the oldest continually operating Episcopal school.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF EPISCOPAL SCHOOLS

The National Association of Episcopal Schools (NAES) is an independent, 501(c)(3), voluntary membership organization that supports, serves, and advocates for the vital work and ministry of those who serve nearly 1,200 Episcopal schools, Early Childhood Education programs, and school establishment efforts throughout The Episcopal Church. Chartered in 1965, with historic roots dating to the 1930s, NAES is the only pre-collegiate educational association that is both national in scope and Episcopal in character. The Association advances Episcopal education and strengthens Episcopal schools through essential services, resources, conferences, and networking opportunities on Episcopal school identity, leadership, and governance, and on the spiritual and professional development of school leaders.
