Located in the Allegheny West neighborhood of Philadelphia,

The School serves students and families who are most in need, providing a full scholarship to every student. Students benefit from small class sizes, an extended day, robust music programs, extensive social-emotional support, and an 11-month school year (Sept - July)

The Graduate Support Program is a lifelong commitment to every child. It prepares students for future success and supports them along the way – through high school, college, careers, and beyond.

The Welcome Table designs community actions and creates spaces for members of the school and broader community to address essential needs and experience a community of sharing.

The Church of St. James the Less seeks to be a place to encounter God, build community and grow personally with weekly mass and worship services.

Position Purpose

We are excited to announce an incredible opportunity for a passionate and dynamic individual to join our community as the Music Education & Liturgical Music Director! In this role, you will be an integral member of the school's Instructional Team, shaping the hearts and minds of our community through the power of music and spiritual expression.

You will be responsible for implementing innovative instructional strategies that create a vibrant learning environment, guiding students from beginning-level performance to choral singing success. Your role will involve fostering a culture of musical excellence and spiritual growth, ensuring our students excel in both their academic and personal journeys.

Working within St. James School's learning community, the Music Education & Liturgical Music Director serves students in fourth through eighth grades, reports to the Principal for teaching responsibilities and the Chaplain for liturgical responsibilities.

General Program Responsibilities

- Choir Rehearsal & School Mass Responsibilities: Plan and implement a choral singing curriculum, lead school choir rehearsals, and manage choir performances.
- Teaching: Deliver culturally responsive lessons, differentiate instruction to meet diverse needs, and inspire students through meaningful relationships and engaging lessons.

- Student & Family Communication: Maintain open and effective communication with families, addressing student progress and challenges, and collaborating with the Instructional and Wellness Teams.
- Weekly School Mass Responsibilities: Select music for Mass, lead musical elements, and ensure full participation from choir members and the school community.
- Grow and Lead Multiple Student Choirs: Oversee and lead both Lower and Upper School choirs, combining their talents to create uplifting and reflective choir contributions for School Masses.
- Elevate our Sunday Night Mass Choir: Guide a dedicated Sunday Night Mass Choir, nurturing their skills and passion for liturgical music. Integrate choral students from the school with the Sunday Night Mass Choir, offering students an advanced choral experience that will prepare them for exceptional musical journeys ahead.

Weekly Mass Responsibilities

Before, During and After Mass

- Works with the Chaplain to select music that is culturally and theologically expansive.
- Sets up the choir seats and the west end for optimal choir use.
- Assembles the choir for practice.
- Motivates choir members, engaging their participation, and setting the tone for full and active participation.
- Leads, with other adult and student musicians, all musical elements of the Mass, striving for full and active participation by the choir and all students and adults present.
- Maintains the engagement of all choir members, monitors their behavior, and redirects them, as needed.
- Works with the Chaplain on the liturgical movements of the choir.
- Meets with the Chaplain, musicians, and other stakeholders to evaluate the Mass experience and to plan for identified improvements.
- Ensures that choir seats are tidy and in good order for the next Mass and/or rehearsal.
- Serves as the curator of all choral music for the School.

General Responsibilities

School Mission & Teaching Values

- Ensures that the Episcopal identity of the school is infused throughout the school day in all settings; supports and participates in school worship, community life and social justice learning and experiences.

- Maintains an orderly instructional environment that respects the dignity of every student and prepares students for academic rigor and social challenges to be found in high schools to which our students aspire to enroll.
- Works in collaboration with members of the Instructional Team and other professionals on staff to provide a quality education for each student.

Qualifications/Requirements:

- Degrees in education/music/choral or equivalent experiences

Equal Opportunity Employer:

St. James is an equal opportunity employer and makes employment decisions on the basis of merit. St. James seeks to have the best available person in every job. St. James School policy prohibits discrimination based on race, color, creed, sex, marital status, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, medical condition, ancestry, religion, sexual orientation, or any other consideration made unlawful by federal, state, or local law, ordinance, or regulation. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, training, promotion, discipline, compensation, benefits, and termination of employment. All unlawful discrimination is expressly prohibited.

Commitment to Anti-Racism Education:

So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation. (2 Corinthians 5:17-18)

St. James School is committed to partnering with others to dismantle systemic racism and to build antiracist, multicultural diversity within our school community and beyond. Through teaching a more complete and unbiased history, St. James School will arm students, graduates and employees with the tools and knowledge to better engage in complex issues like systemic racism and privilege and to hopefully solve them rather than contribute to them.
